

Come Follow Me

Forming Leaders to Make Missionary Disciples

December 2022 Update

Supporting Come Follow Me Catholic Renewal Efforts

What is our mission? Making missionary disciples

How? Equipping leaders, forming discipleship communities, reaching others.

- Men of St. Joseph in 25+ parishes
- Connect Group forming missionary disciples
- St. Monica groups praying and reaching lapsed family members and others
- Promoting NH Catholic renewal events
- Partnering with NH Gospel Christians and promoting 603 Gospel Challenge

Progress in 2022

- Men of St. Joseph reestablished in 25 parishes (previously 6 active parishes)
 - Hosted leadership conference in 2021 for 63 NH leaders
 - Hosted MOSJ conference in 2022 for 90 participants from 30 churches
 - Reestablished service team supporting 25 groups and reaching others
 - Supporting MOSJI in 17 foreign countries including Uganda MOSJ
 - 2023 focus on making MOSJ missionary disciples
- St. Monica Groups
 - Our pilot group has been thriving in our mission for 2+ years
 - A new group has been launched at St. Jude in Londonderry
 - We have testimonies of a restored marriage, spouses returning to church, and reaching our children
- Connect Group
 - 2022 focus continuing on 10 essentials of discipleship
 - Fall shift to international Disciple Making Movement
 - Joining NH leaders in refocusing on Discovery Bible Studies
 - Continuing to support CFM Uganda and Paul Katuramu
 - 2021 and 2022 missions trips postponed---attempt 2023
- Sponsoring 603 Gospel Challenge
 - Our 6 CFM board members are all supportive of 603 Gospel Challenge
 - Based on national movement of state/regional evangelism teams
 - In June of 2022 CFM officially launched 603GC with 30 leaders
 - Current progress: NH team and 3 regional teams, others developing
 - Souhegan Valley-Milford region, Seacoast Gospel Movement
 - New-Lakes Region team forming from Laconia
 - Networking continuing in 6 of 7 other regions

Current Come Follow Me Needs: $14,600

How can you help with funding? Pray for us, host small group event, lunch meeting

- Contact Dick Kiernan: DickKiernanNH@gmail.com or 603-641-5741.
- Click here to donate online.